Concentration in Finance includes: Financial Accounting, Corporate Finance, Managerial Economics, Sustainable Finance and Portfolio Management

Course Overview

Financial statements tell the true story of a business—its health, performance, and inherent risks. This course equips you with the skills to discern subtleties, identify early warning signals, and make astute decisions in today's AI-driven world. Gain the expertise to meticulously analyze financial reports and leverage them to catalyze strategic growth. Whether you are scaling a startup or leading an enterprise, you will develop essential financial literacy and attain a clear, practical understanding of accounting principles.

Over five interactive modules, you will engage with key financial concepts through real-world scenarios, ready to transform data into assured, strategic initiatives. Delve into the narrative behind the data and learn to steer your business towards sustainable success through better decision-making.

Course Outline

Through a combination of videos, quizzes and real-world case discussions in our live sessions together, you will learn the following:

1. Foundations of Financial Accounting
Learn to read Balance Sheets, Income Statements, and Cash Flow Statements.
2. Business Transactions and Reporting
Understand revenue, expenses, and asset valuation
3. Intangibles, Investments & Cash Flows
Explore accounting for goodwill, securities, and cash flows.
Build cash flow statements
4. Liabilities and Equity Explained
Discover how debt and equity shape the balance sheet
5. Ratios, Red Flags & Financial Health
Apply financial ratios to evaluate performance and spot risks in an AI-driven business world.
