2. Register for Micro-Credential in Organizational Behaviour!

Extinction isn't caused by meteors anymore. It's caused by leaders who can't evolve. In today's world, change isn't coming — it's already here. Organizations that fail to adapt risk becoming dinosaurs in the modern marketplace.

This course is designed to help leaders like you evolve, not go extinct. You'll discover how to:

- Motivate teams and inspire trust in uncertain times.
- Transform errors into opportunities for growth.
- Harness AI, manage cultural differences, and foster resilience.
- Shape an agile, high-performing organizational culture.

Guiding you on this journey are award-winning professors Michael Frese — a global authority in organizational psychology — and Yi-Ren Wang, renowned for her research on cross-cultural leadership and resilience.

Whether you're a manager, HR leader, or entrepreneur, this course equips you with the psychological insights and leadership tools to thrive — not just survive — in times of disruption.
